RICHMEN AS ROBBERS. BUCHANAN PLEASED. EIGHT NEW CONSULS.

Seemingly Encourage Him.

Newark engaged as one of the counsel in the with poisoning his wife to death, was consclous that he was the lion of the day in Recorder Smyth's Court when the trial was resumed this morning.

Mr. Knight, whose shock of colorless hair valuable articles carried off. Sunday and bristling white eyelashes and brows make him a marked man, anyway, had bounded into notoricty at one leap by the deft, cool, suave manner in which he had cross-examined one of the leading witnesses for the prosecution, Mrs. Childs, the nurse who was beside Mrs. Buchanan in those on the electric light and ordered them twenty-five hours of stuper that ended with her death.

The Newark man had succeeded not only in destroying the ill-effect on the defendant of petrator. That was the notorious Asbury and the man dropped dead. The report Mrs. Childs's narrative of the dosing of the attracted a crowd to the store and the sick woman by her husband, the evasions of Dr. Buchanan regarding his relations with the He proved to be one of the most popu- dying woman and his suggested heartlessness by her bedside, and Mrs. Childs had sworn They confessed to having committed that the bottle containing the supposed poiing that it was his prescription.

Everybody turned to look at the Newark young man, therefore, to-day, and Mr. Knight not only knew it—he enjoyed it, par-donably.

Buchanan Looks Pleased. Dr. Buchanan, coming into court with Deputy Sheriff Lynch, wore something nearer had ever given out before. It was a smile, an expression of pleasure, but when an " Even-Prosecutor Francis L Wellman, who won the case for the prosecution in the case of Carlyle W. Harris, showed no dimples when he appeared. His face was severe, forbidding, frowning when Recorder smyth entered at 11.20 and Nathan Klein, of 113 East Kighty-fourth street, was called to the stand as the first witness of this the eleventh day of the trial of Dr. Buchanan. Mr. Klein is a notary public at the Board of Excise, and Hentified a bond sworm to before him by Dr. Buchanan, in which Buchanan swore that he owned the house 247 West Eleventh street.

Eliza Ruddy, a nice old lady, who irnished rooms at 161 Western Be vard, was the next witness.

Mrs. Ruddy was one of the positive, relterating variety of witnesses. She identified Dr. Buchanan "readily, sir;

In short, Mrs. Eliza Ruddy rented a room to Dr. Buchanan and wife at the time Dr. Buchanan went into hiding, after "The World" had first called attention, May 22, 1822, to the suspicious actions of Dr. Buchanan.

He Hid Away as " Reed." Mrs. Buchanan, the doctor and the little girl, Gertrude, hid away in Mrs. Buddy's home under the name of Reed, skulking in and out of saloons near by. Augustin Hea, a gray-haired old colored man, living at 269 West One Hundred and Forty-sixth street, came next. He testified that in May, 1822, he was engaged by Dr. Buchanan to go to the house of Harry Warren, 266 West Nineteenth street, and get a valles, which he carried up to Henry Deutsch's saloon, Boulevard and Sixty-seventh street, and thence to the house of Mrs. Ruddy, 161 Houlevard, where he delivered the handbag to a woman with a rosy face, and bag to a woman with a rosy face and red hair, turning gray. Rea. later on, got little Gertrude's haby carriage from Macomber's restaurant and took it to Mrs. Ruddy's.

"Did you ever see either of these men on any of those visits?" asked Mr. Well-man, waving his hand towards Buchanan's lawyers.
